

Email Storage Low Phishing - 12/20/2017

This phishing email attempts to convince users that their email storage is full, and that to enable more space they should interact with the email. The site redirects to a bogus page requesting your login information.

From: Microsoft Official Email <secureoffice@micro365msn.net.com>
Date: December 20, 2017 at 4:56:18 AM CST
To: <joeuser@tntech.edu>
Subject: Office365 Email Storage Low

Microsoft Office365 Email

Short Storage Quota Drive Space.

Dear joeuser

You are out of storage space and will soon be unable to send or receive emails until you enable more storage space.

We recommend you to enable more storage by clicking enable more storage space below for you to be able to send and receive new message and to avoid your email been disabled.

Enable More Storage

This action will take a brief period before this request takes effect

This is a mandatory communication about the service. To set communication preferences for other cases.

This message was sent from the email address is not monitored. Do not reply to this message.

Privacy | Legal Notices

Microsoft Corporation
555 California St #200,
San Francisco,
CA 94104, USA.

© 2017 Office365 Corporation. All Rights Reserved

Please report any suspicious emails to abuse@tntech.edu