

Summer Part-Time Job Phishing - 7/03/2019

Another part-time job phishing message was reported this week. While attempting to spoof the TTU Career Services, this message offers easy-to-make money, which is enticing for students. The message has no affiliation with Tennessee Tech, and the website is meant to gather your information for other malicious purposes. If anyone interacted with the link or gave away any information, please contact the Office of Information Security immediately.
