

Deutsche Post (DHL) Phishing- 5/16/2019

This reported phishing attempt came from a compromised account which was spoofing the German-based DHL delivery service. It was reportedly sent to a large variety of campus community members. The link contained in the message is malicious, and should not be followed. Please contact the Office of Information Security if you interacted with this message in any way other than forwarding to abuse or deleting from your mailbox.

From: Joe B Student <Address@students.tntech.edu>

Sent: Thursday, May 16, 2019 8:06 AM

Subject: Deutsche Post AG

Dear customer,

This email is about your Deutsche Post AG package.

If you have any questions in regards to the content or shipment date of the package do not hesitate to contact us following the link bellow

<https://dhl-delivery.club>

Regards,
your Deutsche Post AG team

DHL International GmbH; Headquarters Bonn; Registered in Bonn; KBB 13054

Represented by the Board of Management: Prof. Uwe Chmiel, Hans Linde, Dr. Vika Nordhoff, Dr. Christian Schawel, Frank-Uwe Ungerer

2019 (C) DHL International GmbH. All rights reserved.

Contact us: <https://www.logistics.dhl/global-en/home/contact-us.html>

Privacy Statement: www.logistics.dhl/global-en/home/footer/global-privacy-notice.html

This email was created automatically by DHL Express. Please do not respond to it.

Please report any suspicious emails to abuse@tntech.edu.